County News.

Christmas was an unlucky day for our friend John B. Campbell, of King's Grove. Whilst driving along the Grove road the two-horse team that he was in charge of, got frightened at something or another and ran away at a frightful rate. When in the vicinity of Mrs. King's farm the frightened team ran into the fence, smashing the wagon all to pieces and inflicting several very ugly cuts on his face and head. Narrow escape this, friend Campbell.

A. P. Davenport's new steam flouring mills, at Craig, commenced operations on Wednesday. The excellent machinery, together with excellent milling talent that has been employed by Mr. Davenport, give an assurance that the enterprise will be crowned with success. Custom grinding done in the best style and on the shortest notice; cash paid for grain, and grain taken in exchange for flour.

—H. S. Busick, who favored us with a call last week, informs us that the growth of Mount City is so great as to necessitate another addition to that city.

—Elder T. L. Cartwright, minister of the Christian Brotherhood, is holding a protracted meeting at the Culpe School House, 24 miles south of Oregon, which is growing in interest from day to day. Quite a number of young folks have been gathered into the church, and will shortly be baptized.

—The Methodist Ministerial District Conference will be held in Oregon, commencing February 23, 1875, and will continue for two days and three nights.

—Henry A. Dankers of Corning has killed and packed 686 hogs. He says he can do better packing his hogs than selling them alive.

—On the 21st of December about twenty-five of the citizens of the Mayflower School district, north eastern Holt, entertained themselves by target shooting, the prize being five live turkeys. Robt. Trimble, James Patterson and Ephraim Harris were the best shots in the outfit. The two former gentlemen were awarded two turkeys each, and the latter, one. The shooting took place on Billy Baskins' old farm, now occupied by Samuel Harris.

—Some of our neighbors across the classic Nodaway, it seems, did not have a very merry Christmas. At a certain point the festivities and dancing was rudely interrupted. With one man was hit in the breast by a brick-bat, and another had the misfortune of getting his nose between somebody else's teeth, &c. Our reporter says the two following were consumed hunting hags. The affair was quite serious, and had its origin in an eight-gallon cask of whiskey.

—The unpleasantness which we quoted as having occurred near Sharp's Grove last week, we learn, has been mutually and amicably settled. Peace and good now reign supreme in that part of our realm.

—Jacob Sweetwood, the blacksmith, has removed from White Cloud to Craig, Holt county, Missouri. —Troy Craig.

—P. McMurtry of Minnesota Valley, Holt county, Mo., has invented a Ship Boiler Hinge Gate, for which a patent has been applied for. A design of this invention can be seen at Mr. Dugan's law office. It is the opinion of a number of gentlemen, in the opinion of the most practical gages ever invented.

—How pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in harmony. On the 14th of December, a number of neighbors gathered together at the residence of Granville Kerkman in Hickory township, and partook of a sumptuous supper.

—Miss Jennie Conner, Miss Susan Belle Rayhill and Mr. B. Cousins deserve particular mention for having improvised the supper and for managing successfully the undertaking.

—A two days deer hunt took place last week in the Nodaway river hills, in which Messrs. Henry Brockman, John Lamb, Sam. Nowland and Jacob Rayhill participated. A deer was chased up from near the Marion School House, and was pursued to the neighborhood of Duncan's mill, where it was brought down. The captors divided the deer into four parts and each man carried home his part.

—John France of Forest City, Mo., is engaged in a new enterprise. He is shipping Red Birds to St. Joe. So far some thirty have been shipped and more will soon be shipped from that county. Mr. France says, that these songsters are shipped to Germany and are more highly valued than those imported from Brazil.

—Many traveling agents have been through the county selling school furniture and apparatus, some of them have been charging two or three prices and in this manner, swindling districts out of their money. Our County Commissioner informs us that outline maps have been sold for twenty dollars, when actual retail price was only ten dollars. Charts for thirty and thirty-five dollars which should have been sold for less than half that price. Directors should consult Mr. Eyerly before buying these things for schools. He is well acquainted with nearly all our publishers, and will order any thing for districts without charging one cent's commission.

—Come up and settle! All persons knowing themselves indebted to the late firm of King & Kyle, are urgently requested to come up and settle between this and the first of January. All such will please walk up to the captain's office, at the drug store, and pay what they owe. If they have no money to gladden the hearts of King & Kyle, let them come up anyhow and settle.

PERSONAL NOTICES.

The fathers and mothers of Holt county, we fear, will have a tough time next spring in repressing the Black Hills fever. A number of the young men of the first families of Holt are wishfully looking to the Black Hills and the Powder river regions. Among the number who intend to go to the Black Hills gold mines in March, we notice the names of Jacob Lawrence, son of Capt. Lawrence, Wallace Downey, and others whose names we do not now recollect.

Mr. Jacob Lawrence is putting in his time this winter in canvassing for that great work, the Moral History of America's Life Struggles, by Petroleum V. Nasby, a book which ought to be in the hands of every American citizen. Mr. L. is now waiting on the citizens of the county taking subscriptions.

—Ferdinand Kunkel, of Republic county, Kansas, is visiting his relatives in Holt, but he has formerly resided in Holt, but for the last seven years has been a citizen of Kansas. He has many good things to say in favor of the portion of the west he represents, and is of the opinion that Republican county is one of the best counties in the Solomon Valley.

—Mr. Frank Morse of Sheanandoh, Page county, Iowa, student of the Bellevue, N. Y. Medical College, is visiting in this city, and is the guest of his uncle, James Linblad.

—Michael Hershner, one of the well-to-do young men of this county, who was on a visit to Crawford county, Ohio, returned last week after an absence of some six weeks. He enjoyed his trip nicely.

—Capt. W. S. Canon who has been visiting in different portions of Indiana, returned to his home in Forest City last week, after an absence of nine weeks.

—Christian Kunkel, of the firm of Kunkel Bros., has arrived from Ohio where he has been some five weeks, rusticating from the severe labors of the factory.

—Steve C. Collins, one of the oldest residents of Holt, returned this week from the mountains of Colorado, where he has sojourned for the last ten months.

—John H. Nies, the efficient tinner and stove dealer of this city, returned from Sedalia, Mo., where he spent a week visiting his daughter.

—James Van Gundy, of Atchison county, was in town on Wednesday, and favored us with a call.

—W. T. Carter, formerly of this county, but now of DeSoto, Johnson county, Kansas, is here visiting his old home.

—Miss Fannie Soper, the efficient principal of the Graham public school, is visiting home this week.

FROM UPPER HOLT.

Mr. Editor: Thinking that a few items from this part of our great and glorious country would be acceptable to your many readers, I will pen a few lines.

Christmas passed off "all right," with the weather very mild for the season of the year.

Thanksgiving was "rough" on the turkeys, but Christmas was ten times "rougher." I hear of 200 turkey dinners in Upper Holt.

David Fobes, of Liberty township had the fattest hog of all the farmers up here. He weighed between 400 and 500 pounds.

Bill Splitter has improved his property by building an addition to his house.

A Mr. True, late of Nebraska, has established a store of miscellaneous merchandise in Minnesota Valley, and the prospect is that he will do well as his stock increases.

Peter E. Whitney has been visiting his relatives in Holt. No preventing Providence, who will return to home immediately after the holidays.

Wm. Duly has sold his 80-acre farm to Mr. Bandy. I did not learn the purchase price.

The fall wheat in Upper Holt looks first-rate. The best 40-acre piece that I have seen so far is that of J. P. McMurtry's, of Minnesota Valley.

They had rather an unpleasant Christmas eve celebration at a house some miles east of us, in Clay township. Everything passed off as "merry as a marriage bell," when during the dance a young gentleman from Graham, by some means or another, fell himself aggrieved. At tremendous unpleasantness ensued, during which the "stiff art" was resorted to, to the great discomfit of all present. The next day was anything but pleasant. The next day one of the "participants" was seen "with his eyes in morning and the shutters closed."

St. Nicholas for 1874.

A Book for Boys and Girls. Of this book Charles DUDLEY WARNER has conducted a long and successful campaign. In the bound volume of St. Nicholas, with its colored and gold, we have a permanent addition to the literature of the young. Never before has so much literary and artistic talent been gathered into one volume. It is a beautiful collection of their taste and of their power and courage. It is not only a book, but a treasure. It is a book that will be read and re-read, and it is a book that will be treasured and passed on to the children of the future.

St. Nicholas for 1875.

The prospectus of the second volume of St. Nicholas, for 1875, is now in the hands of the publishers. It is a beautiful collection of their taste and of their power and courage. It is not only a book, but a treasure. It is a book that will be read and re-read, and it is a book that will be treasured and passed on to the children of the future.

"THE YOUNG SURVEYOR."

By T. T. TOWNSEND, author of the "Jack and the Giant," and "The Young Surveyor." The prospectus of the second volume of St. Nicholas, for 1875, is now in the hands of the publishers. It is a beautiful collection of their taste and of their power and courage. It is not only a book, but a treasure. It is a book that will be read and re-read, and it is a book that will be treasured and passed on to the children of the future.

"EIGHT COUSINS."

By LOUIS M. ALCOCK, author of "Little Women," and "Eight Cousins." The prospectus of the second volume of St. Nicholas, for 1875, is now in the hands of the publishers. It is a beautiful collection of their taste and of their power and courage. It is not only a book, but a treasure. It is a book that will be read and re-read, and it is a book that will be treasured and passed on to the children of the future.

THE SUN.

DAILY AND WEEKLY FOR 1875.

The approach of the Presidential Election has created a new interest in the Sun. We shall endeavor to describe them fully, faithfully, and fearlessly. It is a book that will be read and re-read, and it is a book that will be treasured and passed on to the children of the future.

Final Settlement.

NOTICE is hereby given that the County Court will be in session as a Court of appeal, on Monday, 18th day of January, 1875, for the purpose of hearing objections, if any, against the assessments or appointments of the Commissioners, and on the 19th day of January, or any other matter contained in the report of said Commissioners.
